This matter is before the court on defendant, Racheal A. Cain's Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [70]. The court has been advised that the co-defendant does not object to the continuance. On the basis of the statements set forth in the motion, the undersigned magistrate judge finds good cause for the requested continuance.

Accordingly:

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [70] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial, for both defendants, now set for November 1, 2022, is continued to December 13, 2022.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and December 13, 2022, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(6), (7)(A) & (B)(iv).
3. No further continuances will be granted without counsel for the parties requesting a hearing before the undersigned magistrate judge.

DATED: October 14, 2022

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
